What is a pledge?

Practically speaking, a “pledge” is an estimate of your giving for the coming year, which in turn, funds everything we do as a faith community – from paying the salaries of our clergy and staff, to supporting our outreach ministries, our pastoral care, our worship, our education programs, our music and our facilities. Pledges allow us to dream big and to make bold plans as we make decisions about our priorities and possibilities in the coming year.

Spiritually speaking, your pledge is your response to God’s abundance in our lives. It is both a statement of thanksgiving and an outward and visible sign of our commitment to follow in the way of Jesus, by giving as God gives to us. A pledge can thus help you to grow in your faith and trust in God.

How much should I give?

Every pledge makes a difference,
regardless of the amount.

It might be helpful to consider this question:
Does our giving reflect our standard of living?

One way to ensure that is always true is to give a percentage of your income. Generosity is a spiritual exercise in trust. No matter the gift or income level, when we give generously, it is an act of trust that God does and will continue to provide everything we need.
